Our hunting grounds are located in Transylvania in Greater Alba Iulia / Târgu Mureş / Bistriţa. Arrival is possible either by car or by plane. The nearest airports are in Sibiu or Cluj-Napoca, where we can pick you up. Depending on your personal wishes and the current hunting situation, we will select the most suitable hunting area for you in consultation with you. It is a scenic hunting grounds in unspoiled nature with altitudes of 300-2000 m. The area is enclosed in the west by the Apuseni Mountains and in the east by the Carpathians. Our territories currently form a hunting ground totaling approximately 450,000 hectares.

The roe deer population in Transylvania is very good. Bucks trophies weighing more than 500 grams are shot regularly, and occasionally more than 600 grams (net) come to the range. Thus, the trophy quality in our territories is at least as good as in East Hungarian territories, but with cheaper shooting fees. Depending on the hunting area topography and vegetation differ greatly. From varied hilly landscape with small forests and hedges on wine growing areas to mountain areas, the hunting opportunities. As a result, it is still possible to hunt for strong bucks in June, since in some areas scarcely any agriculture is used, which keeps the vegetation lower. DOE IN ROMANIA from € 899.00
